

17th June 2009.

NEWCASTLE RACECOURSE - NEW AREA

NEWCASTLE RACECOURSE HAS DECIDED TO OPEN A NEW AREA FOR THE PLATE SATURDAY

The area will be in the hospitality village (Annual Members Car Park) where an estimated 1500 racegoers will be present.

A maximum of three pitches will be available and they will be selected from the 'picking list' in accordance with the agreed picking mechanism.

The total cost for betting in this area is to be £500 per bookmaker to include betting badge, admission for two staff and VAT.

Bookmakers considering betting in this area should purchase a betting badge and admission in the normal way and the BRM will collect the balance from the successful candidates.

The area will be open from 10.30 should bookmakers wish to check the facilities etc.

Please check the AGT web site for pitching up times and any other announcements.

Federation of Racecourse Bookmakers Ltd.

17th June 2009.